

Dear Guests — Welcome!

Since 2012, Cotidiano has been providing for you — mornings, middays, and evenings.

We provide you with products of the highest quality – and while doing so we are not only careful to prepare our ingredients gently but we also pay great attention to what is put into our dishes.

That is why we have expanded our ORGANIC range of products: Gouda, salami, and all the grain products in our bowls are ORGANIC-quality. Furthermore, with FairMast chicken breasts, we also provide for better animal welfare in accordance to the standards of the Initiative Tierwohl and also the German Animal Welfare Federation – so that you can enjoy your meal with us with an even better peace of mind.

We consider acting responsibly and environmentally friendly, and being committed to social justice to be simply part of the equation. We are reducing our ecological footprint in all aspects of our actions and we stand for dealing with people and animals with respect. And that is our contribution to a more sustainable, healthier and fairer society.
